UNION KEMPSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Virginia Beach, Virginia

"World's Largest Resort City"

Sylvia Brown, Homecoming Queen, 1967-68, won her honor by combining her ability to be both studious and "nice to be around."

Mr. Willis crowns Sylvia, "Miss Homecoming, 1967-68, in impressive ceremony held in the school gymnasium.

Sylvia pauses at her locker to be sure that she's ready for the next class.

It's a cinch that Honor Students achieve that status by just plain hard work: Pictured are E. Foreman, C. Jones, C. Holly, D. Peebles, L. Butts and C. Floyd.

"Helping Hands"

These students relieve instructors of a great many tedious duties by being office helpers, library assistants and hostesses in the Home Economics Department.

"Busy, Busy Days"

Pounding the keys, assembling the school annual, enjoying lunch hour and doing research for that all-important term paper -- one can't say that a day is ever dull here at U.K.

In spite of opinions to the contrary, students are really serious, "n'est-ce pas".

J.V.B. DAY

"In Appreciation of . . ."

"Smile--You're on Candid Camera."

Mr. Boykin pours punch and appears to enjoy it.

Overdue fines are carefully recorded by Mrs. J. Robinson.

So this must be the exam she's preparing, eh, Mrs. Edwards?

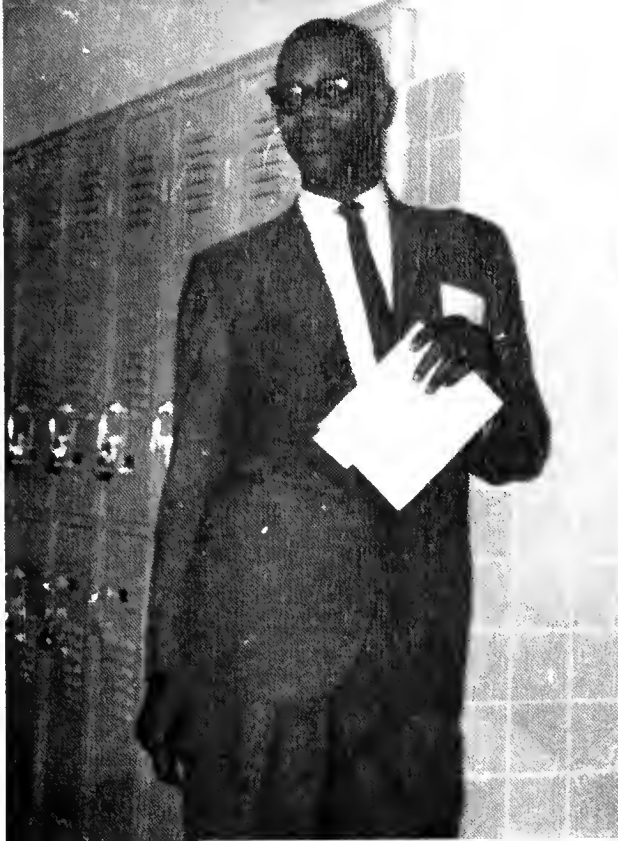

Candid camera man, John Robinson, is himself caught off-guard here with Mr. Hassell.

Mr. Siler believes that a cigar makes him look distinguished.

Others are caught as the roving camera spotlights them.

Principal's Message

Felicitations to the graduates for successfully achieving a major objective of secondary education. It is hoped that your recent experiences will enable you to face the issues, and accept the challenges that lie ahead.

To the loyal, faithful, and understanding parents of this class of 1968, I congratulate you. The sacrifices you have made to assist these graduates in their achievements are invaluable.

Throughout their ever-present quest for intellect at Union Kempsville High School, the graduates have received the final touches of a widely experienced and competent faculty. With masterful strokes and perseverance, another citizen is born, bred, and sent forth to spread his light to the world. But the far-reaching results of the teacher's work remain to be assayed by the future.

Nostalgia visits us all and we would live once more the best years of our lives. You are invited to reminisce and retrace precious memories of steps to a happy ending. Here-in is recorded high lights of the fleeting moments of your high school days. May they serve as cherishing links between you and your beloved friends at Union Kempsville High School, your alma mater.

J. V. Boykin, Principal

CLASS HISTORY

"MEMORIES"

Three hundred fifty seven eager, frightened and slightly bewildered young 8th graders entered the doors of Union Kempsville in September of 1963. None of us knew what to expect, nor what was expected of us.

But we learned quickly, and some of us soon became actively affiliated with the school's organizations by joining the school choir, band, the Student Council, and various departmental clubs; while still others of us made our mark with the athletic program or brought recognition to the school by participating in and winning ribbons and awards at the Science and Math Conference or other scholastic competitive ventures.

In a city-wide art exhibit held at Pembroke Hall, Shirley Eure, Yvonne Snowden and Anderson Freeman distinguished themselves by winning awards for their special art entries.

Jackie Bowe and Ann Ivery represented U.K. at the Optimist Club's annual dinner honoring outstanding teen-agers in the area.

Tyrone Freeman and Carlos Wilson have become Tidewater celebrities of a sort by their frequent appearances on a local television program, "Youth Questions and Answers."

This Senior Class also boasts of 5 four-letter men--Lewis Floyd, Houston Bailey, Bryan Nelson, Willie Holloman and Frank Simmons. And Earl Smith became the 19th basketball player in the district to hit the 1000-points mark in a single season.

It was our own Joyce Cason who placed first in the Senior Division of the Public Speaking Contest which was by the Virginia Beach 4-H Club, while Jeanette Etheridge scored high when she appeared in the I.C.T. Talent Program.

We expect to hear great things of some of our classmates--especially those who in their senior year were chosen to be listed in WHO'S WHO, a national publication profiling outstanding seniors throughout the nation.

We'll remember the impressive ceremony held in the school gymnasium at which Sylvia Brown was crowned "Miss Homecoming of 1967." We'll remember our trip to the General Assembly, the trip to Virginia State College in Petersburg for College Day, the Senior Parents' Tea, the Ring Ceremony, the Senior Play, Class Night--and most important, Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises.

Yes, the past is all History, but we hope that our five years at Union Kempsville will also prove to be the Prologue of great things to come.

ACTIVITIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Throughout the year, THE STUDENT COUNCIL, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Bernadin A. Rasberry, perform services which prove to be invaluable to the total school program.

To see to the orderly passing of classes and to check and keep traffic on the corridors to a minimum during classes is one of the daily tasks performed by these . . .

“KEEPERS OF THE CORRIDORS”

Right: Frances Hawkins performs another Student Council duty--keeping classes.

The LEDGER-STAR gave recognition to nine Union Kempsville students for academic excellence for the school term 1967-68.

Selection to the Tidewater Scholastic Team is focused on scholastic achievement and serves to pay tribute to the accomplishments of the exceptional student, as well as encourage other students to emulate this select group.

Many of the 1967-68 Team are repeaters, having been selected for two or more semesters.

Y-TEENS

Service—with a Smile

Serving the community and school is the primary purpose of this energetic group of young ladies.

The front of the auditorium is beautifully decorated by a tree donated by the Y-TEENS each year.

The proceeds of the Faculty Frolics, which they sponsor, go toward scholarships.

At right, Elizabeth Franklin and Joyce Skinner proudly display one of the many baskets they filled and distributed at Thanksgiving.

Building Minds and Bodies for Responsible Womanhood

MRS. EVELYN SMITH, faculty advisor to the GIRLS' CLUB, stresses preparation for the future in the activities carried on by these girls.

In their effort to promote high ideals in working for the school, community, church and in recreation, the club rededicates itself each year during GIRLS' WEEK.

Their good deeds include preparation of Christmas baskets, awarding of scholarships to graduating members and the presentation of cultural programs.

MUSIC MAKERS

The school band, though small in number, has held captured audiences in concert.

Basically concert performers, the band gave beautiful performances at Christmas and at their annual Spring Concert.

Mr. Roy Reid is band director.

UK Concert Choir is one of the busiest in the area.

Under the direction of Mrs. Ruby L. Allen, the choir has performed at meetings, churches and assembly programs, in addition to their annual Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Their final performance of the year, Commencement, is always filled with nostalgia as many of the carolers perform for the last time with the group.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

THE PAPER MUST GO TO PRESS

The news must go to press with a full staff of copy writers, typists, snoopers and interviewers, Mrs. L. H. Reid has all spinning when its time to "put the paper to bed."

The "Hi-Lighter" Staff puts out four issues per year and includes such features as editorials, student of the issue, library corner and roving reporter. Classes and Club news is featured.

PROGRESS, THEIR MOST IMPORTANT PRODUCT

The Industrial Arts Club which draws its members from boys enrolled in Drafting & Industrial Arts Woods Classes measures its progress by its finished products.

Along with emphasizing shop and industrial safety, the group progresses from stages of cabinet-making, wood turning, furniture making, wood finishing and spray painting to mechanical drawing and designing.

Finished products are entered into competition at State Industrial Arts Exhibits, Virginia State College in Petersburg & at Hampton Institute.
